i don't think you understand; our comments were not negotiable and were subject to a time limit that you have failed to satisfy. we are reopening the case.

i also didn't appreciate your tactic of telling us not to contact the court unless we agreed to a joint filing and then you went ahead and made your own filing.

thanks.

Panning and C.K.,

Please see the attached draft settlement agreement, which reflects our responses to the edits you sent us on April 28. To be clear, among other edits we have accepted as noted in the attached draft, we will agree to the stricken language in Paragraph 6b. Please let us know whether you will agree to this revised draft.

Thank you,
Adriana

Hi Adriana,

Attached please find our edits with tracked changes.

A summary of our edits:

confidentiality: to go through fairness, this agreement shall not contain any confidentiality terms;

tax: the company should already have Plaintiff's tax forms; Plaintiff already agrees in the agreement that he will be responsible for taxes, so no indemnification is needed;

6b. representation: checks requires that the release should be limited to claims based on Plaintiff's employment with Defendants.

Please let us know if you approve the changes or would like to discuss.

Thanks,
Panning
